

Building a Politics of Hope:

Exploring the role and impact of faith-based leadership in local communities

February 24th, 2014. St Bride Foundation, Fleet Street, London.

Chair: Rachel Lampard, Joint Public Issues Team of the Baptist, Methodist and United Reform Churches in the UK

Facilitator: Anna Ruddick, William Temple Foundation

10.30 Registration

11.00 Welcome and aims of the day (Chair: Rachel Lampard)

11.10 Setting the scene: 'Religion and public life in the UK in 2015' – Prof Chris Baker, William Temple Foundation

Each case study (25 mins) will be followed by small group discussions responding to what has been heard (25 mins) and a short plenary debrief (10 mins).

11.30 Case Study #1 Rev. Al Barrett

Al is an asset-based community development (ABCD) practitioner and local clergy man working in urban Birmingham. Innovative projects established around his Hodge Hill parish focus on wellbeing, mental health and employment.

12.30 Lunch break (please note that lunch will not be provided. Please bring your own, or alternatively you will find a selection of cafes and shops close to the venue).

13.15 Case Study #2 Salma Ravat

Salma manages Eat 'n Meet – a food programme for homeless and vulnerable people in Leicester run by the local Muslim community.

14.15 Case Study #3 Chris Sunderland

Chris is a founding member of the Bristol Pound and the Real Economy project in Bristol. The project has established a number of initiatives designed around ideas of justice/shalom in the city's economy.

15.15 Break (tea and coffee)

15.30 Gathering the threads.

Discussant: Alison Webster, Social Responsibility Advisor, Diocese of Oxford

16.00 Break/ networking

17.00 Public lecture: Rev. Steve Chalke MBE, Oasis Trust - 'Building a politics of hope: exploring the role and impact of religious political leadership in local communities'.

Followed by a Q&A session chaired by Paul Hackwood, Church Urban Fund.

18.30 End.